As a follow up to our Spring-Summer CE web classes, we are pleased to announce our Fall lineup of state approved Pennsylvania continuing education classes. The CE programs will be offered in a web-based format providing you with the opportunity to attend virtually and receive Pennsylvania continuing education credits to meet your insurance producer's licensing requirements. The classes are also a great educational experience for individuals not needing producer CE credits but may be interested in the general topic.

The registration fee for Allegheny Chapter CPCU members is $10 per CE class. Non-Allegheny chapter members may attend at the standard registration fee. Listed below is a description of the CE class schedule with a link to register.

If you have any questions, please e-mail or call.
